the Cruise Ship doctor considers it advisable, to place and confine the Passenger in the Cruise Ship's Infirmary, to Passenger's cabin or any other cabin, or to transfer the Passenger to a health facility at any port, all at the Passenger's expense. Passenger acknowledges that travel by sea involves certain risks and hazards including motion of the vessel by sea conditions and the delay and/or impossibility of immediate evacuation from the vessel in the event of a medical emergency depending on the vessel's location and prevailing sea and weather conditions. The Company shall have no liability and shall owe no full or partial refund in the event the Passenger is refused passage, disembarked, confined to the infirmary or their cabin, or transferred to another berth or cabin pursuant to this section.

Pregnant women are highly recommended to seek medical advice prior to travel at any stage of their pregnancy. Women who are up to 23 weeks pregnant at the end of the cruise are required to produce a medical certificate of fitness to travel. The Carrier cannot for health and safety reasons carry pregnant Passengers of 24 weeks or more at the time of embarkation. The Carrier reserves the right to request a medical certificate at any stage of pregnancy and to refuse passage if the Carrier and/or the Master are not satisfied that the Passenger will be safe during the passage.

The Carrier shall not be liable in any way for referring guests ashore for medical services or for the actual medical services rendered ashore. In the event that medical attendance of any kind or ambulance assistance, whether on shore, at sea or by air is required and is provided or ordered by the Carrier or the Master or the doctor, the Passenger concerned shall be liable for the full charge or cost thereof and shall indemnify the Carrier upon first demand of any costs incurred by the Carrier, its Servants or Agents. Passengers who by reason of illness or through any other cause require special or extra accommodation or special or extra attention during the course of the voyage will be charged accordingly.

DAMAGE TO THE SHIP OR EQUIPMENT

Any passenger action, which results in damages of any kind to the Ship or Event equipment, is the responsibility of the passenger; replacement costs will be determined and assessed to the passenger prior to their disembarkation. In the event the damage is not discovered until after disembarkation, and the damage is within a passenger cabin, the lead passenger shall be liable to the Event for the replacement costs for the damage therein.

You agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Company and MSC Cruises from any and all claims that may arise in the event the Master takes such action.

In this case, the Company will NOT be responsible for any loss or expenses caused by reason of such changes or abandonment. Refunds are not made to passengers who elect not to complete the cruise for any reason or cause whatsoever.

Cruise Ship information and descriptions therein on the Event website and on other third-party websites (including, without limitation, photographs, videos, editorials, amenities, and cruise line descriptions) are provided by MSC Cruises, suppliers and service providers. This information is provided to serve as a general guideline and while we can direct you to such information as a reference, the Company does not guarantee its accuracy.

The Ship and other third parties may require you to present a credit card or cash deposit upon check-in to cover incidentals and additional expenses incurred during your stay. Such deposit is unrelated to any payment received by Company for the Event or other transaction. You acknowledge that the Ship and some third parties offering certain services and/or activities may require you to sign their liability waiver prior to participating in the service and/or activity they offer. You understand that any violation of any such third party's rules and restrictions may result in cancellation of your reservation(s) for the Event, in your being denied access to the Event, in your forfeiting any monies paid for such reservation(s), and/or in our debiting your account for any costs we incur as a result of such violation.

All third parties are independent contractors or vendors and not agents or employees of the Company. The Company is not liable for the acts, errors, omissions, representations, warranties, breaches or negligence of any such third parties or for any personal injuries, death, property damage or other damages or expenses related therein.

A reservation/ticket to the Event is a revocable license. The Company reserves the right, without refund of any portion of the price paid or other compensation to you, to refuse admission or to eject any person from the Event, and/or withdraw or refuse to begin services or provide goods to any person, who fails to comply with Company's zero tolerance policy or is otherwise disorderly or conducting themselves in a way that is in violation of the rules of an applicable third party (Cruise Ship, DMC, tour operator, supplier, excursions company, ground transportation provider, etc.) and/or applicable local, state or federal law or ordinance, in whole or in part, or whose conduct is deemed by Company or the applicable third party as illegal, disorderly, vulgar, abusive, threatening, aggressive, or out of compliance with this policy or the applicable third party's terms, conditions, rules or policies, in whole or in part, or whose conduct is deemed by Company or the applicable third party as illegal, disorderly, vulgar, abusive, threatening, aggressive, or out of compliance with the applicable third party's terms, conditions, rules or policies.
